

Financial Assistance may be available to patients receiving non-elective (Emergent) hospital services who are not covered by any form of insurance or governmental programs.

Verification of income and financial information will be required.

Contact the hospital registration personnel for further information.